

In A Nutshell

Supporters of Protect Sudbury include:

Protect Sudbury and its 3,700 friends
Superintendent of Sudbury Water District
Sudbury Board of Selectmen
Sudbury Conservation Commission
Sudbury Town Manager, Melissa Murphy-Rodrigues
Sudbury Historical Society
Sudbury Historic Districts Commission
Sudbury Valley Trustees
State Senator Jamie Eldridge
State Representative Kate Hogan
State Representative Carmine Gentile
US Senator Elizabeth Warren
US Senator Ed Markey
US Representative Niki Tsongas
US Representative Katherine Clark
US Department of the Interior, Fish and Wildlife Service
Marlboro Conservation Commission
Massachusetts Audubon Society
Massachusetts Chapter of the Sierra Club
Friends of the Assabet River National Wildlife Refuge
OARS for the Assabet, Sudbury, and Concord Rivers
Clean Water Action
Environmental League of Massachusetts

See all official letters of support here: www.protectsudbury.org/official-support*

The Transmission line threatens:

Drinking water source for over 18,000 residents of Sudbury and Hudson
Health and safety of the residents Sudbury, Hudson, Marlboro and Stow
Property values, town revenues, and town services
All flora and fauna under and around the proposed power lines
Long term harm to approximately 60 acres of land area
Tens of thousands of trees due to clear cut 4 protected areas including:

- Hop Brook Marsh
- Memorial Forest
- The Assabet River National Wildlife Refuge in Sudbury and Hudson
- Marlborough Sudbury State Forest

